Humpty Dumpty to Sell Bread on Sat. at 1 Cent a Loaf

A feature of considerable interest to the housewife will be extended this week by the Humpty Dumpty stores, located in the majority of cities of the Southland by selling in conjunction with the Humpty Dumpty nut margarine, a large 24 oz. loaf of Humpty Dumpty bread, for one cent. The bread which is made in their own sanitary bakery and delivered to the various stores during the night, contains only the very best of materials and to introduce it into many new homes this coming week it will be sold with every purchase of margarine, at a penny a loaf.

According to Mr. E. F. Stanton, president of the company, the business of the Humpty Dumpty stores shows a very substantial gain for the last quarter of 1927 over the three months previous, amounting to almost 11 percent. He is very optimistic over the prospects of 1928 being a satisfactory year for every line of business.

Considerable expansion is planned for the balance of 1928 by Humpty Dumpty.

Accident That Didn't Happen

WE remember when we were SMALL and would start on a TRIP our Mother would usually BALK until we had had a BATH and changed our UNDIES because she was SCARED that something would HAPPEN and she just knew how ASHAMED we would be for a NURSE to DISCOVER that we were not all SWEET and CLEAN and we thought it was all a lot of BUNK, especially when she would call us BACK for a last SWIPE at our NECK and EARS. We never LANDED in any HOSPITAL before we got back HOME, but we REALIZE now that that was just her WAY of KIDDING us into getting CLEANED UP and incidentally being PREPARED for any EMERGENCY. Moral: Be prepared for emergencies with an extra First Aid Kit, $1.00 at our store.

Week's World News

(Continued from Page 1) Uncle Sam has surrendered his position as skipper of a government-owned merchant marine. The Shipping Board decided to sell the last of its lines—operating from Pacific ports—to private owners. The offer of $10 per ton on the government's 89 remaining vessels was the best ever received by Uncle Sam. In deciding to accept it the shipping board put the United States out of the shipping business.

It is leap year. And Mrs. Joseph Curt of Bloomfield, Ia., claims the honor—questionable though it may be—of being the oldest man of the fair sex to win a husband by the feminine prerogative of doing the proposing. She was Mrs. Doan. She proposed to Joe Curt. He blushed and accepted. They are one. She is 74. He is 62. Each has been married three times previously and wise Iowans shrug their shoulders and say that both of them ought to be old enough to know better.
